WORK HISTORY

Director and Chief Curator / Professor of Practice in Visual Arts University of California San Diego (1/23-Present)
Director and Chief Curator of the Mandeville Art Gallery, a non-collecting institute for contemporary art with a five-decade history of presenting innovative exhibitions in the context of a major research university. I also hold a dual appointment as a Professor of Practice in the Department of Visual Arts, where I teach courses in Museum and Curatorial Studies.

- Launched the Mandeville Art Gallery, an institute for transformative contemporary art, after extended closure for a massive, multi-million dollar renovation. In charge of every aspect of the institution's re-opening, from artistic vision to exhibition planning to strategy to staff management to communications.
- Developed a full curriculum related to the gallery's program, including several professional development and enrichment opportunities for UC San Diego students. Teach undergraduate and graduate courses every quarter related to the gallery's activities and mission.

Founding Director, Gas (Los Angeles) 9/17-1/23 - EXHIBITION ARCHIVE

Founder of the small non-profit arts organization Gas, a mobile, autonomous, experimental and networked platform for contemporary art located in a truck gallery parked around Los Angeles and online.

- Worked closely with artists, curate and realize newly commissioned works spanning sculpture, video, installation, performance and internet-based projects.
- Managed all aspects of expenses, including grant writing, budget tracking, fee negotiation, and coordination with various vendors and fabricators.
- Oversaw successful marketing campaigns for each project, resulting in features and reviews in local, national and international press such as Artforum, the New York Times, the Guardian, CARLA, Los Angeles Magazine, etc.
- Operated as a registrar and art preparator for exhibitions, including light construction, painting, wall vinyl application, exhibition design, and completion of intake/outtake forms for loaned works.
- Partnered with numerous museums, artist-run spaces, galleries, libraries, museums, and educational institutions to park and present a mobile gallery truck.

Assistant Curator of Visual Arts, Yerba Buena Center for the Arts (San Francisco) 10/12-6/16 - EXHIBITION ARCHIVE

Researched, planned and realized exhibitions, special projects, publications, and public programs for San Francisco's primary multidisciplinary contemporary arts center, YBCA.

- Curated fifteen original solo, group and touring exhibitions over a four-year period, as well as numerous public art projects, screenings, performances, etc. Collaborated with a small, in-house Visual Arts production team to deliver exhibitions on time and on budget. Oversaw original publications for each exhibition, such as brochures, two print catalogs, and several online initiatives.

- Coordinated and communicated effectively with Marketing, Development and Education Departments to assist with everything from press campaigns, grant writing, donor relations and teen youth programming related to Visual Arts.
- Participated in creative and strategic stewardship for the organization. As a member of YBCA's Senior Leadership Team, oversaw everything from board recruitment to business planning. Acted as an ambassador for the organization at conferences, gatherings and openings in San Francisco and beyond, resulting in development opportunities, new partnerships, etc.

Senior Editor, Rhizome (New York) 12/07-05/11

Rhizome is a leading art organization dedicated to born-digital art and culture.

- Commissioned original content by writers all over the world, edited, managed, and wrote content for all of Rhizome's publications.
- Worked closely with a small team on various major projects, such as an annual Fundraiser, online exhibitions, strategic planning and an overhaul of the ArtBase, the largest online archive of internet-based art.

Special Projects Coordinator, New Museum of Contemporary Art and Rhizome (New York) 07/05- 06/07

Marketed, managed, developed, and sold the New Museum and Rhizome's special projects, including Point of View, Rhizome Organizational Subscriptions, and New Museum Store Library Service.
